From Saturday February 2. to Tuesday February 5. 1739.

Copenhagen, January 19.

THIRTY Six Officers have been appointed, and are now ſetting out for the Coaſts of Denmark, Norway and Holſtein, to reſide there in certain Diſtricts, and to muſter and watch over the Seamen who are enliſted for the Service of the Fleet: This is an ancient Eſtabliſhment, laid aſide in the late Reign on the Account of ſome Inconveniencies, but now reſtored, upon Experience, as it is ſaid, that for want of ſome ſuch Inſpection, as well as proper Encouragement, the beſt Sailors continually go off into Foreign Service. M. Beſtuchef had Yeſterday a private Audience of the King of Denmark, to preſent to his Majeſty a Letter with a New-Year's Compliment from the Duke of Courland.

Copenhagen, Jan. 30. M. Palmſtierne appeared on the 22d Inſtant for the firſt Time at Court, and had his Audiences of the King and Queen of Denmark in private. A Propoſal has been put forward by certain Merchants in France, and particularly at Bourdeaux, to ſettle a Trade with thoſe of Copenhagen for ſalted Beef, to be tranſported afterwards to the French Colonies in America. The College of Commerce here being deſirous to find a new Market for the Cattle of Jutland, that of the Dutch having failed, give into this Propoſal. Young M. Bram, Son to the Preſident of this City, is lately gone to France to adjuſt and finiſh the Contract; and an Agent from the French Merchants is now expected here, to overſee the Delivery of the Meat, and to anſwer for the Payment of it.

Whitehall, January 16.

His Majeſty has been pleaſed to appoint Joſeph Story, Doctor in Divinity, Dean of St. Edan in the Dioceſe of Fernes, in the Kingdom of Ireland, and Chaplain to the Houſe of Commons in the ſaid Kingdom, to be Biſhop of Killaloe, void by the Death of Doctor Charles Carr, late Biſhop thereof.

By the Agents for the Captors of the Spaniſh Prizes taken and brought to Gibraltar in the Years 1726 and 1727.

Notice is hereby given, That the Officers and Companies of his Majeſty's Ships the Colcheſter, Wincheſter, Tyger, Lyme, Swallow, Portland, and Hawk and Cruizer Sloops, will be paid their Proportions of the Spaniſh Prize Saytia, called the St. Roſario, taken the 15th of April, 1727, purſuant to his Majeſty's Warrant of Privy Seal, dated the 14th Day of December, 1739, on the following Days, viz.
